

RULES FOR GROWN-UPS

TO KEEP YOU SAFE AND HAPPY

The grown-ups who take care of you have rules to follow so you feel safe and loved. Here's what they are not allowed to do:

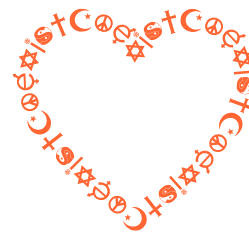

They can't stop giving you food, clothes, or other things you need.

They can't take away your toys or special things.

They can't say mean or scary words to you.

They can't take away things that are important to your family, your culture, or your religion.

They can't stop you from doing something like going to daycare if it's important.

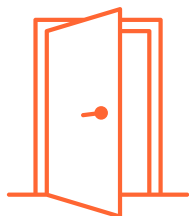

They can never hurt your body or make you feel bad inside.

They can't stop you from seeing your family.

They can't change your room to make it feel scary or unsafe.

They can't threaten to make you leave your home to try to control you.
